5. Duration of Special Camp: From 12.02.2018 to 19.02.2018.

Evaluation Report

Like the previous year, the Special Camp for 2017-18 was organized at Kamra Football Club Maidan of Kamra village under South Garia I Gram Panchayet, Baruipur Block, South 24 Parganas from 12.02.2018 to 19.02.2018. The annual event of Special Camp organized by the NSS Unit, Susil Kar College, was in full swing again this year with the vibrant zest of its volunteers. New comer students seem to have drawn inspiration from their elder peers who conveyed to them the experiences of the previous years.

The inauguration programme took place on 12th February, 2018 at college premises which was attended by the NSS volunteers. The distinguished guests present in the inaugural occasion were Dr.Rupa Chattopadhyay, Head, Bengali Department, Dr.Poppy Kundu and other teachers. All the speakers delivered inspiring speeches to motivate the volunteers explaining the need to involve with this noble service for the call of humanity.

The volunteers were very much active during the tenure of Special Camp. During this camping period the volunteers repaired the ground field of Kamra school maidan. They also directly involved in repairing the road adjoining school maidan of Kamrag village under South Garia I Gram Panchayet. Dr. Amit Basak, the Programme Officer of NSS unit of the college supervised the entire activities. The Principal and other teachers and office staffs of the college visited the camp site and inspired the volunteers. They appreciated this kind of social work. The principal of the college Dr.Manas Kumar Adhikari was highly impressed with the programme and mentioned it in his deliberation. Mr.Avijit Ray, the honourable member of the Governing Body, College, was also present. He thanked all NSS participants, the Programme Officer and the local inhabitants who had worked very hard to make the Special Camp a great success. The villagers were also pleased with this work.

Finally the seven days long programme of Special Camp came to a successful end with help and effort from the NSS volunteers, teachers, official staffs, the NSS department, Calcutta University, College Student Union and South Garia I Gram Panchayet and above all with the cooperation of the inhabitants of Kamra Village. Last but not least the contribution of the Principal for pursuing this kind of social activities is remarkable.
